Howard Johnson Canada's newest franchise to be a hotel and golf resort

Oakville, ON (January 27, 2009) – Howard Johnson announced today the addition of the Howard Johnson Stastny Hotel & Golf Resort to their Canadian franchise system. The Howard Johnson Stastny Hotel & Golf Resort will be the first Howard Johnson golf resort in Canada.

The property, owned by former NHL All-Star Marian Stastny, is a European Style Hotel located in the town of Saint-Nicolas, Quebec and features an 18-hole championship golf course, restaurant, meeting rooms, seasonal outdoor pool, high-speed internet and free parking.

“We are thrilled to be partnering with Marian for our first Howard Johnson golf resort,” stated Glen Blake, president of Howard Johnson Canada, “this will be our flagship and pave the way for other golf resorts looking to join a great franchise family.”

The former Quebec Nordiques and Toronto Maple Leafs player selected the Howard Johnson brand as he believes in their high quality standards.

“With Howard Johnson we feel like the brand is heading in a direction that will help to promote our property as much as possible,” said Stastny, “when we decided to join a franchise, Howard Johnson was the obvious brand of choice; we’re very excited to build a successful partnership with them.”

The property has a target opening date of April 2009.
