

Howard Johnson returns to Swift Current, Saskatchewan

Hotel opens under new ownership and brands' "Fresh Approach"

Burlington, ON (December 10, 2007) - Howard Johnson Canada is proud to announce the reopening of the Howard Johnson Inn - Swift Current, Saskatchewan. The 142 room property was recently purchased by Global Properties International and features free parking, conference space, an onsite restaurant and an indoor heated pool, complete with a waterslide complex for adults and kids alike.

"We're excited to bring Howard Johnson back to Swift Current," said Glen Blake President of Howard Johnson Canada, "it is great to be working with a team that really understands Howard Johnson's commitment to quality. I know they will be an excellent addition to our brand."

The Howard Johnson Swift Current has already begun renovations, which will include guest rooms, public areas and exterior restoration. To accommodate for these major renovations, the rooms will be opening in three staggered stages over the next 18 months.

The property will be the latest to open under Howard Johnson's new "Fresh Approach" which focuses on higher levels of quality, consistency and service across the brand.

"We are thrilled to be joining the Howard Johnson family," stated Daryl Loof of Global Properties International. "With the brands' marketability and our renovations we are excited to offer quality accommodations at great prices to travelers staying in Swift Current."
